

A major materials recovery facility in the North of England, the Darwen site's strategic location enables it to process recyclables collected from over 185,000 households. Commingled collections from up to 19 local authorities pass through Darwen's fully automated dual stream facility which sorts and processes plastic, glass and metal cans, and bulks paper and cardboard.

Year built: 2004

Plant square feet: 42,000

Tonnes processed annually: 65,000, including 20,000 tonnes of mixed paper

Types of material processed: Paper, card, glass, aluminium, steel, plastic

# of Employees: 23